On Madam Anne Gros' first visit to Hong Kong, we are delighted and honoured to host this wine dinner with a group of Burgundy lovers at the Hong Kong Wine Vault.

For this dinner, the guests were all very generous in contributing one bottle of Madam Gros' wine each from their own cellar to assemble this impressive vertical of 7 Richebourgs and 5 Clos Vougeots. Surprising, no one contributed anything other than the Grand Crus!

We also had the opportunity to sample some of the more recent offerings such as the Echezeaux and the Minervois. One of the guests nailed the 2007 Echezeaux blind!

The beautiful wines were paired with the traditional Cantonese cooking from Chef Yip. We firmly believe that Burgundy is a perfect match for Chinese cuisine.

It is dinners like this that goes to show Hong Kong is not all about Bordeaux. At the Hong Kong Wine Vault, there is a broad spectrum of wine preferences and we hope to do more themed tastings like this one in future.
