The name David Powell would not be unfamiliar to those who love Australian Shiraz. As the previous winemaker/co-founder of Torbreck, nobody knows shiraz better than he does. In 2014, David and his son Callum began a new chapter by opening Powell & Son, a joint venture between the veteran and his 23-year-old son Callum, who has been studying oenology and honed his skills in the Rhône working for Jean Louis Chave.

Father and son contribute two contrasting but complementary styles to the wine. David brings power and concentration while Callum's hallmark is elegance and purity. They had a vision to create expressive wines which tell of true Barossan terroir and its diversity. They chose the six vineyards which they believed to be the most expressive of the different Barossan districts throughout the Barossa Valley and Eden Valley – planted to Shiraz, Grenache, Mataro, Riesling, Roussanne and Marsanne, with the oldest vines being 125 years old.

It was our great pleasure to have Mr. David Powell (left), owner of Powell & Son to present their premium wines to us.

2016 Roussanne Marsanne

It displays pale yellow color, a beautiful aromatic of white florals, peach and stone fruits on the nose. Creamy, mineral, crisp acidity gives the wine an attractive, elegant, nicely textured. Delicious, brilliant finish!

2016 Eden Valley Riesling

It offers up a succession of delicate aromas of white flowers and stone fruits on the nose accompanied by white apple, grapefruit, citrus and crisp acidity on the palate and a long lingering finish!

2015 Steinert Shiraz

It shows dense purple color followed by the musky aromas of spices, smoky, red fruit and pepper characters on the nose; the palate is medium weight, nicely textured with fine length on the finish!

2015 Kraehe Shiraz

The dense ruby/purple color exhibits the aromas of plums and black fruits favors. Medium to full-bodied, spicy, chocolate and silky tannin that are well-structured.

2015 Brennecker Shiraz

The 2015 offers very beauty ruby/purple color, a musky aroma of black fruits on the nose, crisp acidity, spicy and subtle smoky characters, good concentration, firm tannin and very long finish.

2015 Loechel Shiraz

It boasts an expressive red and black fruits, floral intermixed with spicy nose. Medium-full bodied, meaty, cedar, very good concentration and good tannin structure with an overall expression of harmony and balance.

2015 Barossa & Eden Valley Shiraz

The Barossa & Eden Valleys Shiraz epitomises the philosophy of Powell & Son: to marry the greatness of the Barossa and Eden Valleys. A 50/50 blend of Eden Valley Shiraz from 40+ year old vines and Barossa Valley Shiraz from 60+ year old vines. Beautifully aromas of lavender, meaty and black fruits favor. The palate is dense and deep with blackberry, finesse, gorgeous texture and excellent length on the finish!

2015 Barossa Valley Shiraz

Fresh aromas of blackberry, spicy and tobacco on the nose. Medium weight, black currant, herbs and spicy flavors on the palate, supple tannins with very good length.

2015 Grenache Shiraz Mataro

The Barossa Valley Grenache Shiraz Mataro combines all three of the great Rhone red varieties, harmonising the unique attributes of each variety into a complete wine. The blend is predominantly Grenache (approximately two thirds – vintage dependent) from mature Barossa Valley Grenache bush vines, with Shiraz and Mataro making up the balance. It boasts the ruby/purple-colored accompanied by the perfumed aromas of blackberries, plum, spicy and red fruit characters. Full-bodied, very good concentration, smoky with ripe tannin, drinking beautifully now!
